I like to read (YA, NA, Urban Fantasy, Contemporary), write fiction (both short and long), do a bit of amateur photography, and create art (drawing, painting and working with decoupage glue). When I'm not reading or writing, I'm studying and then practicing law, practicing law, and then studying. I believe that if you don't know where you're going, any road will get you there. The farther away you are, the more you are bound to lose. I enjoy the challenge of learning new things (topics, methods, software, etc) and using it to serve my clients. Additionally, I believe that my job is to be on the cutting edge of technology. All I ask for is to be treated with respect, to be paid fairly, to not be overworked, and to be provided with the tools necessary to handle my business. And even more importantly, to be paid before I receive the paycheck. I hope you all can enjoy this journey with me.

2009 World Championships in Athletics – Men's 3000 metres steeplechase

The men's 3000 metres steeplechase at the 2009 World Championships in Athletics was held at the Beijing National Stadium on 22 and 24 August. Defending champion Dmitry Klokov was the favorite for the championship and he was the pre-race favorite. Klokov was in the lead for much of the first half of the race, then he faded fast and missed his attempt at a world record. He finished 2nd behind Pawel Kuliz, who also broke the previous time of 9:03.67. The following day Gregory Wade took the gold medal with a 9:07.34, the same time that Klokov had clocked in his unsuccessful attempt at the world record. Schedule Medalists Records Schedule
