Fuelling for the right reasons Don't know where this recipe comes from, but it has been an absolute hit all over the world. I have also shown it to friends and family and they are all amazed at the incredible flavour and texture. I have added a few more ingredients to give you more options, but my variation to this dish is quite simple and still tastes delicious. The cool thing is that it is still a family favourite. For a family of 8, I put 2 scrambled eggs on 2 slices of toasted wholegrain bread (milk toast) and sprinkle a layer of Parmesan cheese. I choose to have my local free range eggs from Woodlands and they are really good. You can use your remaining cooked bacon to make little tomato and egg sandwiches. For this recipe, I like to use Peko bread rolls. They are very light and slightly crispy and are a perfect treat for kids. You could add mustard to the eggs for everyone, but I prefer just the one and it is amazing on it's own. My 4 year old loves it and so does my husband. Milk is good for children because it is soothing and easy to drink. I also use almond milk in this for the same reasons, but you can use any milk you prefer. You could even substitute the milk with whole milk and add a few currants or raisins, or other dried fruit. If you can't use creamed spinach, then finely chopped spinach is fine. It tastes similar to the real thing but it is healthier for you! You can swap the bacon out for meatballs and meat sauce. You could serve this with mashed potato or pasta if you like, and it is perfect for your vegetarian or vegan guests. Ingredients: 2 eggs 2 slices of bread (or use any bread you prefer) 100g of bacon cooked until crispy (or use other protein like meatballs and meat sauce) 2 ripe tomatoes 1/3 cup of creamed spinach 4 basil leaves 1/3 cup of mozzarella cheese (or parmesan) Salt & pepper Method Put the eggs in a shallow dish and season with a little salt and pepper. For the usual way to cook scrambled eggs, you put a bit of milk in the dish, then scramble the eggs and they will be cooked a bit different. I use milo for this as it can take a
